

HEALTH KUDOS

WCU School of Nursing to host education fair

ASHEVILLE—Prospective nursing students can learn about career opportunities as Western Carolina University's School of Nursing at the annual education fair 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday. The fair will be held at WCU's instructional site at Biltmore Park Town Square, 28 Schenck Parkway, Suite 300.

Registration is not required and prospective students are welcome to drop in at any time. Admissions and financial aid advisers will be available.

Visit www.nursing.wcu.edu or contact Jessica Shirley at 654-6506.

Bradley joins Park Ridge Health

ASHEVILLE — Park Ridge Health welcomes Teresa Bradley, M.D., board-certified in family medicine, to its network of primary care providers.

Bradley provides comprehensive care to patients of all ages and is accepting patients at Family Medicine at Biltmore Park, One Town Square Boulevard, Suite 220.

Dr. Teresa Bradley

To schedule an appointment, call 855-774-5433.

Groh appointed to leadership roles with AAOS

ASHEVILLE — The American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons has appointed local orthopaedic surgeon Gordon I. Groh, M.D., to several leadership roles.

A board-certified specialist in shoulder, elbow and hand surgery at Blue Ridge Bone & Joint in Asheville and Hendersonville for the past 18 years, Groh has been named to the AAOS Shoulder and Elbow Program Committee.

Dr. Gordon Groh

He has also been reappointed to the Education Subcommittee for the 2013 AAOS annual meeting to in March, where he will present a course on "Reverse Shoulder Arthroplasty-Beyond the Basics."

For more information, call 258-8800 or 692-4318 or visit www.DrGordonGroh.com. Appointments may also be requested at www.brbj.com/appointment-request.

