

Nov 11, 2008

Groh serves as faculty member

ASHEVILLE — Local orthopedic surgeon Dr. Gordon I. Groh recently served as a member of the faculty at the Orthopaedic Learning Center in Chicago for a series of lectures on shoulder fractures and standard and reverse shoulder replacement surgery.

Orthopedic surgeons from around the country attended the program and received hands-on instruction from Groh.